Language Arts Assignment
Vocabulary Review Sheet
Words 1 - 70

Words 1 – 10:
1. Even though Janice was an _________________________ person, she couldn’t find a way to get along with her obnoxious neighbor.
2. The Egyptian monuments _____________________ enemies fleeing, heavy ox-carts carrying women and children, and ships in a state of confusion. For these reasons, people continue to visit Egypt to see these monuments.
3. While Dean caught brief hints of __________________________, she seems, for the most part, successful in putting darker thoughts aside, content to enjoy the peace of the day.
4. Jordan pretended to be a ____________________________ businessman by saying he contributed to charities and organizations that would better the community. In reality, however, he never spent on dime on making his community better.
5. After all of the trauma she had been through, Asia tried to ___________________________ her emotions so that people wouldn’t know how she was feeling.
6. Maybe it was ___________________ and immature, even careless, but she intended to accept his proposal, even knowing as little as she did about him.
7. He couldn’t blame her for looking ____________________________ after hearing the tale. He wouldn’t have believed it himself if he hadn’t witnessed the entire situation.
8. After writing a 60 page summary of a 100 page book she read, Elisa was upset that she received a D on the assignment. The teacher told her that she included too much unnecessary information and told her that summaries should be _____________ ____________.
9. It is __________________________ that you bring back your permission slips if you wish to go on the field trip tomorrow.
10. To highlight and _________________________ their eyes, cheeks, noses, and other features, all dancers, male and female, wear makeup when they are on stage.

Words 11 – 20:
11. In was being _________________________ when I told my mother that if she wanted my sister and I to get along, she should have us hold hands and sing “Kumbaya” with each other. Little did I know my mom was going to take me seriously and actually make us do it.
12. Because the two students couldn’t seem to get along, the teacher placed a _________________________ between their two desks to separate them.
13. The sky turned an __________________________ shade of black just before the thunder boomed and the lightning flashed, hit the house, and set it on fire.
14. When you are training a puppy, you have to be ____________________________ and keep the routine the same, so that he doesn’t become confused and not understand what you want him to do.
15. When the principal asked James why he was in the hallway, James responded, “It’s none of your business.” The principal immediately suspended him for being ____________________________.
16. From his findings on the Galapagos Islands, Charles Darwin was able to _________________________ that isolation contributed to species adapting physically to better suit their environments.
17. When my mom told me we were going to the Dominican Republic for our vacation, I was _________________________ because I had been wanting to go there for 15 years, but we never had enough money before!
18. Alexis possessed a very ______________________, or sarcastic, sense of humor.
19. In historic times, Asia has attempted to ____________________________ her influence over Europe by a series of invasions, most of which have been repulsed.

20. In order to avoid losing my documents which I have on my computer, I back it up to an ____________________________ hard drive.

Words 21 – 30:

21. After receiving numerous tips from the public related to apprehending the suspect, the detectives followed up on all of the ____________________________ tips they had received.

22. After begging the teacher for extra recess time, he explained that their behavior did not ____________________________ giving them a reward.

23. The man who stole the homeless person’s coat was an extremely ____________________________ individual, without any compassion.

24. Believe in yourself and don’t let the nonsense others say ____________________________ your self-worth.

25. The five-car pile-up on the highway was a ____________________________ to us getting home in time for the big game.

26. After being hit hard in the head by the baseball, Joseph’s thoughts were not ____________________________ and he didn’t know where he was or what the date was.

27. Meredith’s parents were both doctors, so she gave everyone around her ____________________________ looks because she thought she was better than them.

28. One ____________________________ misunderstanding about a piece of gum shouldn’t be the enough to end a friendship.

29. When the politician said he was going to lower taxes for the middle class, I felt very ____________________________ because in the past, he had only helped the upper class and businesses.

30. The mood in my mom’s hospital room was terribly ____________________________ because we knew she was dying.

Words 31 – 40:

31. The book was a ____________________________ story about a prince who turns into a frog and kisses a princess, who then also turns into a frog.

32. Asking questions like, “Why did the author write this story?” are rather ambiguous and don’t lead to good discussions.

33. After the comedian ended his easy-going ____________________________ with the crowd, he thanked everyone for coming to his show.

34. The winners of a war are generally able to ____________________________ the terms of surrender to the losers.

35. During the time of the Salem Witch Trials, many people started ____________________________ rumors about others that resulted in severe consequences for them.

36. The macaron recipe gave ____________________________ directions because it was imperative that you follow them exactly, in order for the macarons to turn out correctly.

37. My team lost the championship and when we got home, my family was consoling me and trying to cheer me up.

38. After laws were passed restricting a woman’s right to make choices about things that concern her own body, I wrote an ____________________________ letter to my senator’s.

39. With an education, you have a better chance of having a life of ____________________________ and success.

40. The teacher asked us to ____________________________, what we thought the story was teaching us.
41. When people in society try to __________________________ and be like everyone else, we run the risk of creating a society of robots, who don’t think for themselves.
42. His mother is careful to __________________________ all dairy products from his food due to his allergies.
43. Natasha, __________________________ and frowning, sat on a bench watching the rest of her family have a great time at the picnic.
44. The man trapped in the car after the accident was in __________________________ danger because it was on fire.
45. The prosecution found a witness, who had seen what had happened, to __________________________ the accused’s claims of innocence.
46. The journalist tried to __________________________, or outline, the main points of the politician’s speech, so she could write a newspaper article about it.
47. The house featured ten bedrooms, fourteen bathrooms, three pools with slides, two kitchens, three living rooms, a movie theater, and a bowling alley, making it a very __________________________ residence.
48. When asked why he was late to class, Tanner answered, “I had pizza last night,” which was an __________________________ reply.
49. I was thinking about my mom and dad the other day and I became very ______________ about my childhood.
50. When the assistant principal asked Fred how he had gotten out in the hallway in the middle of class, he gave a __________________________ reply and said, “I got up and walked out here.”

51. After a bad day at work, her dad had a __________________________ expression on his face, so she knew this wasn’t a good time to ask if she could have a party.
52. He became more and more __________________________ as he struggled to figure out exactly what the teacher wanted him to do on his assignment.
53. When working on a project, you should first __________________________ a plan and then decide what steps you need to take to complete it.
54. Because I have anemia, my doctor wants me to take an iron __________________________, to bring up the levels of iron in my body.
55. The doctor rolls his eyes and sighs whenever he talks to me about my grandfather’s condition. He is very __________________________ to me.
56. Olympic judges are sometimes perceived as having a __________________________ towards athletes from their own countries.
57. Interrogators were reportedly frustrated by their inability to __________________________ useful information from him.
58. He didn’t study for the Constitution Exam because he was __________________________ about school and didn’t care if he passed or not.
59. Marissa was always welcome at parties because she was so energetic and humorous and people liked her __________________________ attitude.
60. If you want an extension on your work plan due dates, you have to give me a __________________________ reason for needing it.

61. The thought of moving halfway across the country, away from his family and friends, made Romero feel very __________________________.
62. There are certain obligations, which, although not explicitly stated, are obviously __________________________ in the contract.
63. Lacy doesn’t like to say she is good at lying, but she will say she is able to __________________ the truth very well.
64. When you are getting onto the highway, you have to move over because the lanes ________________.
65. Natasha looked at Sonya with wondering and ____________________ eyes, yet she didn’t ask her anything.
66. He is a lazy guy who will only work in ____________________ when he knows someone is watching him.
67. Most children, and even adults, wake up very ____________________ on Christmas morning, in anticipation of seeing the gifts they receive.
68. When writing a biography of someone, you must ____________________ all aspects of that person’s life.
69. The same basic story line seems to ____________________ throughout most fairy tales, making them predictable and easy to understand.
70. After Brian asked Cheyenne to the dance, she gave him a ____________________ laugh directly in his face, which let him know that she believed she was way out of his league.