“Slavery”

Directions:

1. Read all of these directions before beginning this assignment.
2. In your Social Studies Notebook, on the next blank page in the assignments section, write “Slavery” at the top, as the title for the assignment. Write the date in the upper right-hand corner of the page.
3. Review the notes you took in class about slavery and think about the discussions and activities in which you participated.
4. Using the information in number 3, write a 1 page diary entry of a slave. Your entry must demonstrate your understanding of the experiences of slaves, including what slavery is, how slaves were captured, the ways they were brought to America, including the hardships they faced, what happened to them once they arrived in America, and what they may have been feeling throughout the entire process, from capture to delivery. Remember, this is your diary, so you ARE the slave.
