Speech Assignment
Interpretive Recitation - Presentation

Directions:

1. Read all of these directions before beginning this assignment.
2. This week, you will present your piece, including your interpretation, to the class.
3. Before you begin, you must give the teacher your Speech Notebook, opened to the page with your piece on it.
4. Your presentation must start with the introduction to your piece, then you must recite the piece, verbatim, and you must end with your conclusion to the piece. You must display your poster so that others may see it during your presentation.
5. As you are reciting the piece you have chosen, remember to use variety in your voice to convey the message in the piece that you want your audience to receive. This requires different tones, volumes, pauses, etc., as are necessary.
6. After you have finished your presentation, you must ask your audience if they have any questions about your piece. Be prepared to answer questions that may pertain to your interpretation or your reasons for choosing the piece, as well as questions about your poster.
7. When you are finished, get your speech notebook back from the teacher.
8. Mark the date on which you completed this assignment on your work plan.
9. Turn your work plan into your mailbox, using your purple and green folders, as soon as you are finished with the assignment, but no later than the due date listed on your work plan.
