

STUDENT CONSENT FOR PARENTAL ACCESS TO EDUCATIONAL RECORDS (FERPA FORM) Students 18 years or Older

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. FERPA gives parents certain rights with respect to their children's education records. These rights transfer to the student when he or she reaches the age of 18 or attends a school beyond the high school level.

Understanding my privacy rights under FERPA, I consent to grant access to my educational records to the individuals listed below as follows:

- This release allows the individuals below to discuss my educational records with school officials, or to schedule an appointment to view my educational records in person.
This release permits the individuals below to request official documents, make changes to my records, or otherwise conduct educational business on my behalf (ex: order transcripts, drop/add classes).
School officials may discuss details of all educational records with the individuals listed below, including grades, class schedule, academic standing (probation, etc.), disciplinary records and bursar information. It excludes sharing information from police or school medical records.

This release is in effect until I revoke it in writing.
