Reading Assignment
Read Aloud Reflection

Directions:

1. Read all of these directions before beginning this assignment.
2. In your Reading Journal, skip a line from the previous entry and write “Read Aloud Reflection” centered on the line, as the title for the assignment. Write the date to the right of the title.
3. On the next line of the page, write the title of the book you are listening to in class.
5. Choose one of the levels for the assignment listed below. Remember to choose a level at which you need additional practice, but also challenge yourself to go a bit higher. If you choose to complete the assignment at a level which the teacher does not feel challenges you enough, you may be asked to re-do the assignment at a different level.
6. On the line beneath the author’s name, write the level you chose to complete this assignment, including a brief explanation about why you chose the level you did.
7. Complete the rest of the assignment for the level which you chose.
8. After completing the assignment, re-read what you have written, making any necessary corrections or changes. You should be turning in your BEST work.
9. Mark the date on which you completed this assignment on your work plan.
10. Turn your Reading Journal into your mailbox as soon as you have completed the assignment, but no later than the due date listed on your work plan.

If you have another idea about how to reflect on the reading besides the ones listed above, please see the teacher to discuss it. 😊

If you are absent for all of the weekly readings:

1. Follow the instructions in # 2, as explained above.
2. Underneath the title, write “absent for the reading”.
3. Turn your Reading Journal into your mailbox, following the directions above.
