Speech Assignment
Presentation

Directions:

1. Read all of these directions before beginning this assignment.
2. When it is your turn to present, you must give the teacher your notebook, with your research notes, outline, 1st and final drafts of your written speech, and works cited page in it, before you speak. The notebook must be opened to your final draft.
3. During your speech, you must use only your notecards (not your written speech) and refer to your visual aid.
4. You will present your speech to the class, following the guidelines for grading on the rubric you were given.
5. When you have concluded your speech, you will offer a brief question and answer session to your audience. You may take up to a maximum of 5 questions.
6. Collect your materials from Ms. D. after your presentation.
7. Mark the date on which you completed this assignment on your work plan.
8. You do not need to turn in your notebook, visual aid, or notecards as these have already been graded.
