

2nd Grade Math – September

Numbers in Base Ten

- Representing and writing numbers
- Reading and writing number words
- Writing numbers in standard and expanded form
- Place value: difference between “place” and “value”; representing numbers with “tens”, “ones” and “hundreds”; exchanging units for longs
- The meaning of the digit “zero” in a number
- Comparing and ordering numbers
- Representing numbers with base ten blocks
- Adding and subtracting 10 and 100 from a number

Math Vocabulary:

Find definitions for these words by going to the “Math Vocabulary” tab base ten blocks

ones

tens

hundreds

unit

long

flat

ones place

tens place

hundreds place

value

notation

expanded notation

place value

zero

groups of ten

compare

order

greater than

less

less than

larger

smaller

more

more than

least

most

strategy

order numbers
associative property
first second
third fourth
fifth
ordinal
array
exchanges